Peering over a transom, Lenke saw the man in the room of the hotel's manager, Moreland Brower, on the first floor. The house detective teleboned to the West 68th Street Police Station and Detectives Devanney and Maloney arrested the intruder. He had filled a suitcase with clothing and other valuables and had taken all the money he found in the manager's

The prisoner and Detective Devanman said he was Harry G. Kruck. twenty-six, a clerk, living at No. 112 West 61st Street. He admitted Devanney had arrested him two years ago in a room at the Hotel Wallick, and he had not long been out of Sing Sing. A curious letter was found.

Sing. A curious letter was found upon Kruck. It read:

"Your life is in danger if you don't follow these instructions. You will be shot in the back on the night of June 1 unless on the night of May 31 you take $2,500 to the west gate of Central Park at 59th treet."

Men's English-made Straw Hats

CARMOOR

More made than manufactured - if you get what we mean!

HESE English Sennits have a sort of razor-edge beauty of brim and crown. They are incisive. Keen enough to cut a swath. The straw is very delicate and fine. The modeling is cleancut as the facets of a diamond. The making is excellent. It's a light-hearted hat and yet a hat that brings a rush of distinction to the head. In a street full of straws it will not be unobserved.
